

ANNUAL POLICING PLAN

DISTRICT RAJANPUR

FOR THE YEAR 2015-2016

(GHULAM MUBASHIR MAKEN)PSP
District Police Officer
Rajanpur

Planning is looking into the future with eyes of the present. Ideal planning is the foundation stone for achieving success in any field.

In conformity with the requirements of sections 32, 10(4) 80 (f) and e 92 (f) this Annual Plan is an important step towards describing our intentions for the future. As, the geographic layout of this district is peculiar; Rajanpur police is charged with arduous responsibility of tackling dynamic & multifarious issues. Nevertheless, the crime pattern in Rajanpur is quite varied and includes important factors, as infiltration of Bugti criminals from Western side and activities of notorious gangs residing in bed of the River Indus on the Eastern Side has been remained challenge for local police. The protection of Indus Highway which is main artillery in the context of safe traveling of the commuters requires arduous days and sleepless nights. Besides this, provision of security to the foreigners visiting this district for varius purposes i.e construction work on Mega Projects like Katchhi Canal; constitute extremely important responsibility of Rajanpur Police.

🌟 INTRODUCTION BY HEAD OF DISTRICT POLICE.

- Before going ahead, it would be expedient to enlighten the historical background of Rajanpur. Study of history reveals that the fort of Harrand was constructed by Hindu “Raja Harnacus” and his son “Lok Bhagat” on the style of Mohnojodero that is the reason, structure of Harrand Fort seems contemporaneous civilization of Mohnojodero. Study of history also reveales that Muslim rulers from Muhammad Bin Qasim to Ahmed Shah Abdali had maintained their sovereignty at this area. Consequently, Jat, Nahar, Lodhi and Baloch were the prominent Tribes. When the Region of Harrand being ruled by Nadir Shah, he gifted this area to Makhdoom Sheikh Rajan Shah (his Kardar) in recognition of construction of Qutab Canal. Later on, the said Makhdoom Sheikh Rajan Shah added word “Pur” after his name during the year, 1732-33. Since it calls Rajanpur.
- Consequently this area had been remained under the domination of different rulers i.e. Baloch tribes, Nadir Shah Barohi, Khan of Qalat, Mahraja Ranjeet

Singh and Nawab of Bahawalpur . When the British rulers attacked the Sub-Continent during the year 1849, this area came under the Flag of British Government. The Baloch tribes who were famous due to their stubbornness refused to accept the regime of British Government. Since the Western border was inhabited by Baloch tribes on both sides. Border Military Police was created and area was divided into two parts i.e settled as "A" and tribal belt was declared as B-Area. Tribal area is a hilly linear stretch running North to South. Criminals across the provincial border often infiltrate into Punjab through the tribal areas. There is no effective check on their movement.

- Previously it was Sub-Divisional Headquarter of District Dera Ghazi Khan. It was created as independent district on 01.07.1982. The principal tribes are Mazari, Dreeshak, Gorchani, Buzdar, Gopang, Lund and Gishkori. Rojhan Su-Division is mainly populated by Mazari tribes; Dreeshak tribe is dominating in Tehsil Rajanpur while Gorchanies are in majority in Jampur Sub-Division.
- People have nomadic mode of existence which incidentally facilitate the commission of crime. The topography of area creates another problem, as the area is adjacent with Suleman hills, which are always very hospitable abode for the criminals.

➤ TRIBAL FEUDS

- The Western part of the district is adjacent with Dera Bugti Agency, Kohlu Agency and Barkhan Agency. Rojhan Sub-Division is mainly populated by Mazari tribes, whereas its Western part is dominatedly inhabited by Bugtis. The history of tribal feuds between the said tribes has been over decades on issues like stealing/snatching. Though, these both tribes are close relatives, as Meer Balkh Sher Mazari is chief of Mazaris, while Bugtis are followers of Late Nawab Akbar Khan Bugti. But they usually have been remained at dagger drawn on different issues. The tussle and rivalry had remained several years in which many precious lives have been lost. In case of any serious dispute between them, they approach their chiefs who interfere and patched up the matter on their own accord.

- Crime is product of society. No offence can be committed in isolation. Men differ with one another. Similarly geographical and ecological factors give birth to peculiar customs and traditions in a particular society.
- A man can be corrected after studying his psychology. A society can be purged only after studying the people minutely with reference to its specific geographical, social, cultural and economic conditions, ecological factors and customs, tradition and usage. Rajanpur, when studied in this context is a unique district.

➤ CULTURAL CONDITIONS.

This district has mixed culture of three Provinces i.e. Punjab, Sindh and Balochistan. The population is predominantly Baloch by caste, hence the Balochi norms are paramount. Urban areas are mockery of town and cities. Almost all the population lives in rural areas. They are governed by their specific customs and traditions. They have inculcated in them a false but exaggerated sense of morality and ego. Women folk are in most wretched conditions. Their plight cannot be expressed in words.

- The persons living in rural areas do not live in villages. They have their individual abodes away from others, at their lands. They have no headman or Chowkidar as there are few regular villages. They cannot tolerate a stranger at their doorstep. Any visitor will have to call the residents from a considerable distance from the house, so that it may not be suspected that visitor has come to see any women. They share bed with their wives and do not allow them to sleep on a separate cot for fear of immorality. Polygamy is common.
- The settled area is nearby the B-areas approximately on a few yards. District Police remains handicapped for the hot pursuit. Examples of Bugti intruders can be quoted in this regard. According to rules an important factor is that keeping sophisticated fire arms is not a crime in B-Area as a tradition. Moreover it is a normal practice that out-laws and proclaimed offenders after committing crime in settled area, cross over to tribal area where district police can't enter.

➤ GEOGRAPHICAL LAYOUT/CONDITION.

The territory of this district on the Western Side touches the boundary of Sindh & Balochistan Provinces. A tribal belt of Koh-e-Suleman covering the area of 5000 Sq KMs is also adjacent to its territory, which is not under the administrative control of the Punjab Police. The responsibility of crime control and maintenance of law & order in tribal area rests on BMP.

- River Indus flows in the east touches the boundaries of Rahim Yar Khan and Muzaffargarh Districts.
- Kashmore & Ghotki Districts falls in Southern side (Sindh Province).
- Dera Ghazi Khan District in its North.
- The land of the district either falls in river belt or within hill tracts. The land on the main road is flood ridden. It consists either of water logged areas or desert. There is very small portion of land which is under cultivation.
- Indus Highway, which is the main artery for public transport and alternate route from Karachi Punjab, enters in Rajanpur District from Kashmore (Sindh) in Shahwali (Punjab) and passes throughout the district at the length of 198 K.Ms. Its portion from Kashmore to Rojhan measuring 48 K.Ms. is most vulnerable. The Bugti criminals commit heinous crime on Indus Highway making this main artery unsafe for commuters.
- Kashmore-Sui Road is most vulnerable being convergence point of 03 provinces i.e. Punjab, Sindh and Balochistan. This road starting from Indus Highway from Kashmore leads to Sui-Area of Balochistan. It is stretched over 48 K.Ms. Initial 5/6 K.Ms. include in the territorial jurisdiction of Sindh Province. Then it enters into area under the control of District Rajanpur and passes through about 20 K.Ms. While about 5/6 K.Ms. strip is jurisdiction of B.M.P and hence it moves into Balochistan Province.
- Three major installation:- Sui Gas Pipe Line coming from Dera Bugti, Water supply line and high tension electricity line going to Dera Bugti pass from the Southern side of this district from the area of Police Station Shahwali. The Bugti tribesmen tried to disrupt the Sui Gas Pipe Line by Rocket firing and use of landmines. The local Mazari tribes, who are settle in this area retaliate by disrupting electricity and water supply going to Dera Bugti. The incidents of damage to essential utilities have taken place in this area.

Although, Rajanpur Police is handling the situation with tremendous commitment, yet there is much room for providing better service and controlling the crime, which creates general sense of security in the minds of public. ★ MECHANISM FOR ACHIEVING ADMINISTRATIVE TARGETS

1.) IMPROVEMENT OF POLICE IMAGE

There is no denial at the fact that due to the shameful attitude of some black sheep in the Police Department, the image of Police has been severely damaged. In order to improve the image and working of police, it is need of the time that the conventional and worn out Thana Culture be revolutionized to forestall the multidimensional challenges faced by the police in modern era. The following steps may be useful in this regard.

- vii. Productive Co-ordination/Interaction with Media.
- viii. Improving Discipline & Accountability (Iron Hand) in Police Force.

3.) COMMUNITY POLICING

Indeed, the community represents a major, often-untapped crime prevention resource. Residents can provide an essential information base greater than that of police departments with limited personnel and resources. In turn, the police act as a catalyst that brings the necessary resources to bear on specific, community-identified public safety problems. Police work then becomes comprehensive, problem solving and proactive as opposed to solely reactive.

In order to encourage community involvement, police administrators first must accept and support the idea that community members have a potential role in police activities. The department also must engage community members by soliciting their opinions, building trust, fostering relationships, participating in community groups, and developing programs that allow citizens to actively assist in policing responsibilities. For example, police officers might establish or join a parent-teacher association or other neighborhood organization, form a task force with residents to solve a particular problem, or invite citizens to sit on an internal board, such as an advisory group or a research and development team.

After readying the infrastructure to support community involvement, the department must identify community organizations that reflect the varied interests and concerns in the jurisdiction and that represent the full range of characteristics and behavior patterns in the region. To do this, the department should obtain a list of registered organizations and groups. Organizations with a viable track record and, at a minimum, neighborhood-level membership, could be selected for further consideration.

The next step would be to obtain a complete description of the community from official records available to police departments and other local government agencies. This includes features such as racial composition; children living under the poverty level; the homeless, elderly and gay populations; gang membership; public housing residents; and other relevant features. Matching this information with the list of organizations will yield a selection of groups that represent the community and include a complete range of interests.

Third, the department should conduct a needs assessment to identify the most pressing problems in the community, the perceived obstacles and tensions that exist, and the proposed resolutions and strategies. The assessment should include input from the groups selected, the department staff and community representatives.

Through this model assessment, police and other agencies become intimately familiar with the community. They have the knowledge at hand to engage community leaders and solve prevailing public safety problems.

4.) REDRESSAL OF PUBLIC COMPLAINTS

- i. Establishment of complaint cell in District Police Office, under the supervision of DSP/Legal to record the complaints of the general public and issue necessary orders accordingly.
- ii. Open Katcheries in front of the office for the early Redressal of Public Complaints.
- iii. Strict Departmental action against corrupt/inefficient police officers (Black Sheep).
- iv. Zero Tolerance Policy towards Police Torture.
- v. Establishment of Mohallah/Police-Public Committees.
- vi. Productive Co-ordination/Interaction with Media.
- vii. Action under section 182 PPC for registration of fake FIRs.

5.) MONITORING AND VIGILANCE

Proper and result oriented monitoring and vigilance of all police affairs through formal/informal inspections etc. by the undersigned and concerned Gazetted Officers deputed for the task.

6.) IMPROVING DISCIPLINE & ACCOUNTABILITY

Police is a disciplined force and discipline is the spinal cord of its organization. Moreover, being a public servant every policeman is answerable and accountable to the court of general public. If he commits any corruption/highhandedness he must be dealt with exemplary punishment. The following steps/measures may be useful to maintain discipline/accountability in police force.

7.) RAISING TRAINING STANDARDS, MERIT BASED RECRUITMENT

The Police officers/officials must be recruited purely on merits. The merit policy in recruitment of police officers/officials must be adhered to in letter and spirit. No political interference, nepotism or favoritism be allowed in this regard. It will surely provide right people for the right post. After transparent and on merit recruitment, the police officers/officials should be trained properly. The present training standard needs to be highly upgraded keeping in view the multidimensional challenges faced by police in the modern age. Our goal must be preparation of the police officers/officials capable of serving the nation in accordance with Constitution, Law and aspirations of the public of democratic Pakistan.

8.) WELFARE OF THE FORCE AND PROJECTS BEING IMPLEMENTED

With a view to achieve the highest excellence of efficiency and performance of the Police Personnel, the following steps are proposed to be taken for the welfare of the force.

Moreover, for better interaction and easy access, the record of all police units must be connected with main server (computer lab) installed in District Police Office, through Internet.
